

Where Are We Going?

Our Leaders – Character & Personal Traits

1

- Sincere love for and pursuit of Jesus Christ demonstrated in regular personal worship, meditation on the Word of God and prayer

2

- Demonstrated fullness of the Holy Spirit, of faith and of wisdom

3

- A perception of leadership not as grasping for position, or title, or power, or authority, or respect, or privilege, but as a commitment to humble service and self sacrifice

4

- Personal exposure, loyalty to their pastors and to those who they are pastoring

5

- Trustworthiness, with the ability to resist being bribed or bought

6

- Commitment to the “Barnabas style” of open, loving communication, to solving relational problems, to processing anger constructively, to encouraging and building up

7

- Willingness to be a team player and to help one's pastoral associates to succeed

8

- A strong, loving marriage in which both the husband and wife sense the call to minister

9

- Capable and respected, mature in the faith, and with proven ministry ability

10

- Willingness to be judged by strict standards and to accept reproof

11

- Love for people and for Jesus, without the desire to benefit personally at the expense of someone else

12

- Commitment to equipping others for ministry through active recruiting, training, deploying , monitoring and nurturing

13

- Commitment to doing excellent work, taking responsibility seriously, being proactive, planning and executing well

14

- A committed, cheerful giver who tithes regularly to the fellowship